Eligibility
The Two by Two: small-scale ceramic sculpture biennial is open to all artists eighteen years of age and older. Artworks must be original, completed within the last three years, and not have been previously exhibited at Eastern Washington University.

Juror
Timea Tihanyi is a Hungarian born visual artist living and working in Seattle, Washington. Tihanyi holds a Doctor of Medicine degree from Semmelweis University, Budapest, Hungary; a BFA in Ceramics from the Massachusetts College of Art in Boston; and a MFA in Ceramics from the University of Washington, where she has been a member of the Interdisciplinary Visual Arts program faculty since 2004.

Tihanyi’s work has been exhibited in the United States, Australia, Denmark, Spain and the Netherlands, including Shepparton Art Museum, Henry Art Gallery, Bellevue Art Museum, Mint Museum of Art and Design, Society for Contemporary Craft in Pittsburg, Clay Center for the Arts and Sciences, Foundry Art Center, and International Museum of Surgical Science. She has participated in international residencies in ceramics at the Kohler Company, European Ceramic Workcenter, and European Ceramics Context. In Seattle, Tihanyi’s work has been part of numerous solo and group exhibitions at Gallery 4Culture, CoCA, Consolidated works, Seattle Art Museum (SAM) Gallery, Davidson Contemporary, SOIL Gallery, and at the Linda Hodges Gallery, which currently represents her work. www.timeatihanyi.com

Media
Small-scale ceramic sculpture. The height, width and depth of a work may not exceed two feet in any direction, and the weight may not exceed 25 pounds. All work must be received ready to install. Wall hung sculptures must have proper hanging devices attached. If you have any questions regarding your entry please contact the gallery.

Images
Artists may submit a maximum of three entries (up to two images for each entry). Only JPEG images will be accepted. Images should be 72 or 96 dpi and may not exceed 1920 pixels in height or width. Maximum file size is 3 MB. Images exceeding the maximum file size will not be included in the jurying process. Label images with entry number (i.e. 1a, 1b, 2a, 2b), and artist’s name (i.e. sara_hughes_1a.jpg). Images may be emailed or submitted on CD or DVD. EWU reserves the right to refuse an entry if upon arrival the juror finds the work unacceptable.
Entry Fee
A non-refundable fee of $30 for up to three entries, made payable to Eastern Washington University Foundation must accompany entry. Payment of this fee does not guarantee that any/all artworks submitted for jurying will be included in this exhibition.

Sales
The gallery does not retain a commission on sales. Work will be sold at the price listed on the entry form, and all sales will be arranged directly between the artist and buyer. All work must have a sale price, or if not for sale an insurance value must be indicated.

Awards
EWU Gallery of Art will make total cash and/or purchase awards of up to $1,000.00.

Liability
All works accepted will be insured while at EWU Gallery of Art. Artists are responsible for insuring their work during shipping to and from the gallery.

Shipping
Artists are responsible for the cost of shipping their accepted entries to EWU Gallery of Art. EWU Gallery of Art will pay return shipping expenses for artworks shipped through USPS or FedEx ground. Return shipping expenses for all other shipping methods or for artworks being shipped outside the US are the responsibility of the artist and must be prepaid. All works (whether shipped or hand delivered to the gallery) must arrive in a sturdy reusable crate or carton labeled with the artist’s name and title of the work. EWU Gallery of Art will not be responsible for damage due to inadequate packing or insufficient container when returning artwork as it was originally shipped.

Accepted Entries
Accepted entries must arrive at the gallery between Monday, January 5 and Wednesday, January 14, 2015.
