One-Day College Women's
Leadership Institute
Applications Due OCT 20
No Cost to Students
Meals and Materials Included

This non-partisan program was developed by the Center for American Women and Politics at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, to educate, empower, and encourage college women to become politically active and to take on leadership roles. Funding is provided by the Women's Funding Alliance.

During the institute, students will meet women leaders, learn about women in American politics, and develop and practice leadership skills through panel discussions, workshops, and hands-on projects. Find out more and apply here: <http://bit.ly/2bzVIQz>

INTERSECTIONS: FEMINIST FRIDAYS 11:45 am - 1:15 pm

Beginning this Friday, October 6th, we will host a casual, drop-in, bring-your-own lunch event every Friday.

During lunch, we will catch up, provide informal support for each other, and discuss current affairs as they relate to intersectional feminism.

Feel free to bring topics you would like to discuss and updates on your calendar of events.

GIVING TREE

APPLICATIONS DUE:
FRIDAY, OCT 27

This project of the H.O.M.E. program ensures that every child of a student-parent at EWU receives a gift during the holiday season.

On the application, students specify their children's ages, clothing sizes, and any specific gift requests they might have.

Applications may be picked up in Monroe 207 or found online here:
<http://bit.ly/2g6qKh2>
Email cmartin22@ewu.edu for more information.

H.O.M.E. CHILDCARE SCHOLARSHIP

APPLICATIONS DUE:
FRIDAY, NOV 17

If you are a student-parent with a child or children in childcare, please stop by Monroe 207 to pick up your scholarship application for winter and spring childcare.

FOOD AND TOILETRIES AVAILABLE

If you are an EWU student in need of food or essential toiletries, we have these items available in the center.

If you would like to donate food or toiletries, please contact Lisa at llogan83@ewu.edu or (509) 359-2898 to find out how.

DOLORES SCREENINGS FRIDAY, OCT 13

The PBS documentary, Dolores, directed by Peter Bratt, will screen at 4:00 and 7:00 pm at the Magic Lantern Theatre on October 13th. The film chronicles Dolores Huerta's evolution from teenager to a key architect of the national boycott of grapes. As co-founder of the United Farm Workers of America (UFW), Huerta fought for better working conditions for farm workers. She coined the slogan, Si se puede, to organize the community. At 87, she is still active organizing people to run for office and advocating on issues of health, education, and economic development. The film features moving testimony from her children. Following the film, there will be a Q&A with the audience. Cosponsors: Chicana and Chicano Studies Program, Film Department, Women's and Gender Studies Program, SAIL, and Eagle Entertainment.

2018 ACTIVIST IN RESIDENCE: JACE BYLENGA

We are happy to announce that our next Activist in Residence will be Jace Bylenga. Jace has a wealth of experience as a community organizer in the environmental movement in our region. His unique focus will enable us to reach a broad audience this winter. If you would like us to come speak to one of your classes or groups about this or any other program, contact us anytime. Watch our website and Facebook page for updates.

WE HAVE A NEW NAME!

You may have noticed the new name and logo on the front of the newsletter. Our name changed from the Women's Studies Center to the Women's and Gender Education Center or "WAGE." This name is intended to be more inclusive of all genders while also maintaining our focus on a wholistic approach to academics for all of our students at EWU.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD GENERATION ACTION AND SCARY FEMINISTS CLUBS

We advise two active clubs on campus and they both welcome new student members.

Planned Parenthood Generation Action meets on Tuesdays at 4:30 pm in Monroe Hall Room 207.

Scary Feminists meets on Tuesdays at 5:30 pm in Monroe Hall Room 207.

WOMEN'S FACULTY AND STAFF SOCIAL CLUB

First Wednesday of Every Month of the Academic Year
Linnie's Thai at 1301 W 3rd Ave. in Downtown Spokane
Social Hour 6:00 pm
Presentation 6:30 pm

Women staff and faculty of EWU gather to share teaching, research, and life. A guest speaker is featured each month and uses the time to talk about anything from volcanoes in Hawaii to the biology of wine and chocolate. Other members pitch in to buy the guest speaker dinner for the evening. Social hour starts at 6 pm and dinner is ordered individually from the menu at 6:30 pm.

LGBTQ+ STAFF AND FACULTY AFFINITY GROUP

This is an affinity group specifically for LGBTQ+ Staff and Faculty to gather for social time and support throughout the year. If you are an LGBTQ+ identified staff person or faculty member, feel free to contact Lisa at (509) 359-2898 or llogan83@ewu.edu to find out more about our meeting times and locations.
