May 4, 2011

10 am  Doughnuts and Dialogue with Noémi Ban
        JFK Library Atrium

11:30 am  Peace Pole Blessing
          Campus Mall

1 pm  Noémi Ban: A Survivor’s Story
      Showalter Hall Auditorium

3:30 pm  Schindler’s List Screening
         PUB MPR

5 pm  Going from hate to Compassion
     led by Dr. Russell Kolts
     PUB MPR

Mrs. Noémi Ban

Noémi Shoënberger Ban is an award-winning teacher and public speaker, respected and beloved mother, grandmother and synagogue senior who has lived in Bellingham since 1982. A native of Szeged, Hungary, Noémi Ban was 21 when the Nazis marched into Debrecen, Hungary on March 19, 1944. Ultimately her father was sent to a forced labor camp and she and her family (grandmother- Nina, mother- Juliska, sister- Erzsebet, and baby brother- Gabor) were sent on a transport to Auschwitz arriving on July 1, 1944.

For more information, or if you have special needs, please contact Skyler Oberst at cis-ewu@gmail.com or call 360.969.8217. This event is being hosted by the Compassionate Interfaith Society.
Co-sponsored by: University Honors, DIEO, Office of Student Activities (OSA), The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences and Social Work, Lutheran Campus Ministries (LCM) and The American Holocaust Memorial Museum.